

Round 2: Task Guidelines

Timeline: T-0

Every event in MV brings in a new flavour. Literary events at MV are the perfect platform for people who can bring their words to life! You can check out our website to know more about the literary events.

Task:

As per instructions, respond to the following situations: It's Day Zero and.....

- It's raining heavily and the Event Coordinators for Literary events could not turn up.

Conceptualize 5 on-the-spot events as a part of your contingency plan and also mention how you would drive college participation given that most of the IIM Lucknow students are unwilling to step out in the rains.

- A transformer got busted as a result of which there is no electricity in Bodhigrih. So you have no rooms available for conducting Literary events indoors. All your external participants are present however and are waiting for the event to start. Conceptualize 5 on-the-spot events so that the show can go on in open air at the Fauji complex.

Suggestions:

These guidelines are not binding, so please feel free to present your event in the way you like. Our only advice is to keep your task submission brief and precise, without compromising on attention to detail.

Final Deliverables:

A Word Document or PDF file (Maximum 2 Pages)/PPT (max. 6 slides) covering all necessary details.
