

ROHAN

Rules and Regulations

- Register online individually for the preliminary round with the appropriate submission
- Selected participants would then proceed to the rounds conducted on campus

The event will proceed as follows:

Preliminary Round:

Participants have to submit an original poem of their choice by 1st November 2018 to literary@iiml-manfestvarchasva.com.

Any length and style of poetry is accepted. The Poem should be in English or in Hindi. Shortlisted participants would be invited on campus for the subsequent rounds.

Round 1:

- Each participant gets 5 minutes to present their online submission in the forum.
- Use of props, musical accompaniments and singing is not allowed.
- Both the delivery and the content will be judged.
- Participants with the top scores will proceed to the final round.

Round 2:

- There will be three topics shared with the finalists.
- The finalists will be given 30 minutes to write a 5 to 10 line poem on any one of the topics.
- This will be followed by the presentation of the same to the panelists.

General Guidelines

- In case the participant is not able to attend, he/she must intimate the organizing committee 7 days in advance.
- The decision of the judges and the organizing committee is final.

Contact:

Himanki: +91 - 860 006 7276

Siddharth: +91 - 959 905 2170

literary@iiml-manfestvarchasva.com

www.iiml-manfestvarchasva.com

Rohan
Spoken Word Poetry Competition